ALMA MATER

Proudly waves old West High's emblem, Black and orange fair, Floats triumphant in the breezes No dishonor there. Student days have fondest mem'ries Comrades here we stand, As our troth to alma mater Pledge we hand in hand.

From thy halls dear alma mater, We at length must part, But thy memory shall not perish From one student's heart. Far away on life's broad highway All must fortune try, But our loving hearts will cherish Thoughts of thee, West High.

George A. Lombart

DEDICATION

To Mr. Lombart, our teacher, counselor, and firm friend we dedicate this yearbook. Since we first came to West High School, we have taken our problems to him, and he has dealt with them with both wisdom and kindliness. He has taken a personal interest in each of us, and has shown an understanding which we shall not soon forget.

George Lombart attended Indiana University for a year after his graduation from Benjamin Franklin High School. He then transferred to the University of Rochester from which he received an A.B. degree in 1951 and an M.A. in 1952. He began teaching at West High in September, 1952.

FOREWORD

We look back fondly on our years at West High School, the friends we have made, the traditions we love, the memories we shall cherish . . .

The leaping flames of the bonfire on a crisp autumn night,

The surging high spirits of a football game on a blue and gold October afternoon,

The caroling choirs at Christmastime,

The gay carnival ballyhoo on West High Day,

The proud, solemn sight of the Memorial Day standing guard,

The anxious anticipation during the hectic hours of Regents week,

And finally, the majestic strains of Pomp and Circumstance.

These things we remember.

". . . To say that a blind custom of obedience should be a surer obligation than duty taught and understood . . . is to affirm that a blind man may tread surer by a guide than a seeing man by a light."

Francis Bacon 1561-1626

ADMINISTRATION

When each department was asked to choose a quotation for us to carry out into the world, our principal, Dr. Wishart selected a single concise statement, well worth pondering.

"You can't be stupid, unless you know better!"

Edward M. Pickard

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

The members of the Guidance Department do their share of teaching, too, as they strive to help each student find himself. Each is ready to offer advice and his own store of wisdom to every pupil from bewildered eighth graders to college-bound seniors.

"That's what education means—to be able to do what you've never done before."

George Herbert Palmer

SPECIAL SERVICES

Psychiatrist, speech therapist, and nurse, these three take care of students' special problems and help them to enjoy school and life. Well they know the wisdom of the words:

"Strengthen me by sympathizing with my strength, not my weakness."

Amos Bronson Alcott

Speech Therapist: Constance Freeman

Nurse: Anne Resch Psychologist: Janet Barnett

First row: Elizabeth Agnew, Frederick Eastman, Patricia Galbreath, Sandra Fitterer. Second row: Adah Chandler, Joyce Doolittle, Olga Vaughn, Elwood Burnard, Mary Barnum. Third row: Judith Feingold, Martha Hall, Muriel Keating, Joyce Herman, Johanne Pouliot. Absent: Ruth Geller. On leave: Maynard North.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

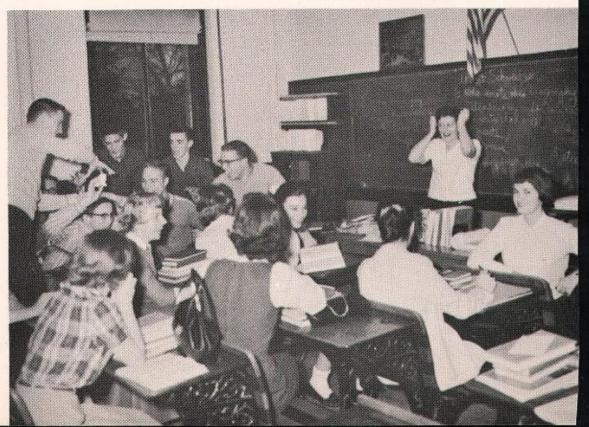

Since it is eager to impart a love of literature to its students and knows full well the joy that books can bring, this was the choice of the English Department:

"For he had geten him yest no benefyce
He was so worldly for to have offyce
For him was lever have at his beddes head
Twenty bokes, clad in blak or reed."
Geoffery Chaucer

"Now when you fall, make it realistic."

HONOURS classes provide enriched curriculum.

Seated: Ruth White, Mary Mans, Harvey Lockwood, Marcia Chadwick. Standing: Benjamin Richardson, Douglas Naramore, Dayton Fleming, William Howe, Edward Halbleib, Santo Patti, George Lombart, Stephen Miller.

HISTORY DEPARTMENT

The History Department selected a man famous in American History to speak for it.

"I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience. I know of no way of judging the future but by the past."

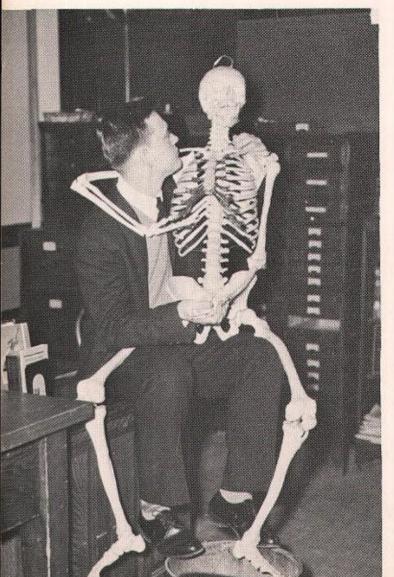

Patrick Henry 1775

Mr. Patti's problems

Wilfred Newman, Mary Parsons, Thomas Bohrer, Lawrence Ross, Donald Prevost, Carleton Thayer, Emerson Bresee, Jacqueline Lux. Absent: Harold Saunders.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

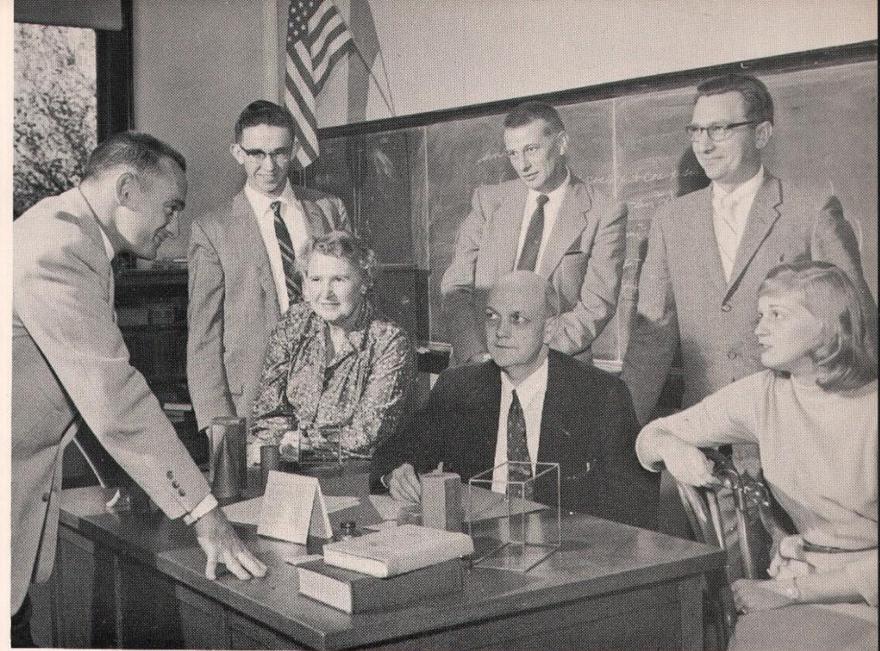

The Science Department chose to remember its founder with this statement made by an old friend of Harry C. Carpenter's.

"He was first and foremost a true scientist, and he maintained that his department should be truly scientific in all its teaching. Secondly he had a very great love for young people, especially teenagers, and had a great faith in their goodness and tremendous worth.

"I think that our Science Department today received a fine legacy from Mr. Carpenter and is making a real effort to keep them fresh for the new generations to follow."

E. D. Bresee

"How do I love thee? Let me count the ways."

Seated: Julia Bishop, Harland Smith, Jacqueline Lux, Standing: John Felber, Robert Henderson, John Harper, Cosimo Culotta.

Absent: Maurice Hathorn, Isabelle Lanson.

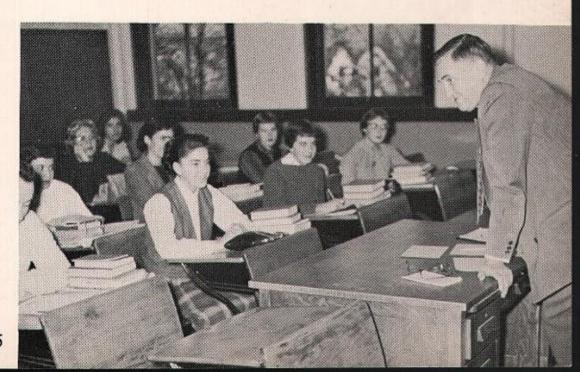

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Mathematics is one of the most precise of the sciences. The very thing which makes it most difficult to master is also the soul of its loveliness.

"Euclid alone
Has looked on Beauty bare. Fortunate they
Who, though once only and then but far away,
Have heard her massive sandal set on stone."

Edna St. Vincent Millay

Whaddaya mean ya don't know?

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

From the department of foreign languages we gleaned three maxims to be heeded well. With more Latin students than our school has had for many years this department stated, "Notitia linguarum est prima porta sapientiae. French proverbs are plentiful, and "vouloir, c'est pouvoir" is one that French students learn from experience. Spaniards seem to be more able to take things in their stride for, as they say, "No hay malo que cien años dure."

Helen Beshgetour, Frank Saunders, Margaret Lang. Absent: William Howe.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The Commercial Department prepares a large number of West High students to enter the world of business shortly after graduation. Well they know that:

"There is no better ballast for keeping the mind on its keel, and saving it from all risk of crankiness, than business."

J. R. Lowell

Carl Fromme, Elizabeth Connaughton, Rosemary Petitti, Ethel Bearss, Glen Miller, Raymond Murphy, Jean Chestnut. Absent: Jean DiRienzo.

yd Slater, Harry Hicks.

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT

"My art is the painting of soul,
So fine so exacting, so strange:
To blend in one tangible whole
The manifold features of change."
Gamaliel Bradford

The art department has a far greater job than that of teaching the proper use of tools.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

"Music is a universal language. It knows no social barriers, political ideologies, racial hatreds, geographical boundaries, or monetary levels. It is made up of love and hatred, joy and sorrow, suspicion and fear, happiness and fun stirred together with the spoon of poetry."

Mr. Ahern

PRACTICAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

"Stay at home my heart and rest.

Home keeping hearts are happiest."

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The department of practical arts teaches a variety of skills as useful now as they will be when students have homes of their own.

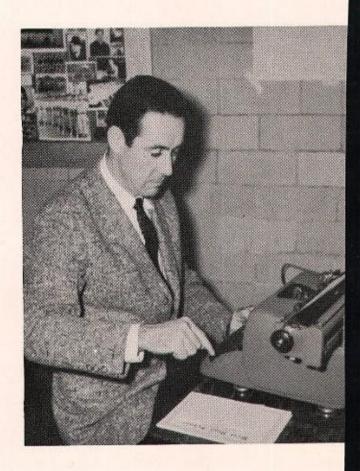

Elaine Wallace, Margaret Pruner, Joseph D'Ambrosia, Earl James, Bernard Smith, Audrus DeMay, Nancy Bush, Samuel Hessney. Insert: Roger Bunce.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The quotation, "Kindle knowledge in a sturdy stove and warm the whole world," is an excellent way of expressing the importance of Physical Education.

Good health has a very important bearing on our modern society. As medical science has improved, so our life expectancy has improved, but proper exercise is still important. Physical Education not only improves our physical well being, but also our mental well being. Participation in sports encourages a feeling of team work and fair play.

Mrs. Caroline Hinchey, Mrs. Joyce Brown.

LUNCHROOM STAFF

How many students racing down the stairs as the bell sounded have thought:

"Their tables were stor'd full, to glad the sight, And not so much to feed on as delight." Shakespeare

OFFICE AND CUSTODIANS

Sometimes we tend to forget the immense job of keeping our school clean and smoothly functioning. The custodial and office staff are used to doing their tasks without glory or recognition.

"But finding ample recompense
For life's ungarlanded expense
In work done squarely and unwasted days."

LIBRARIANS

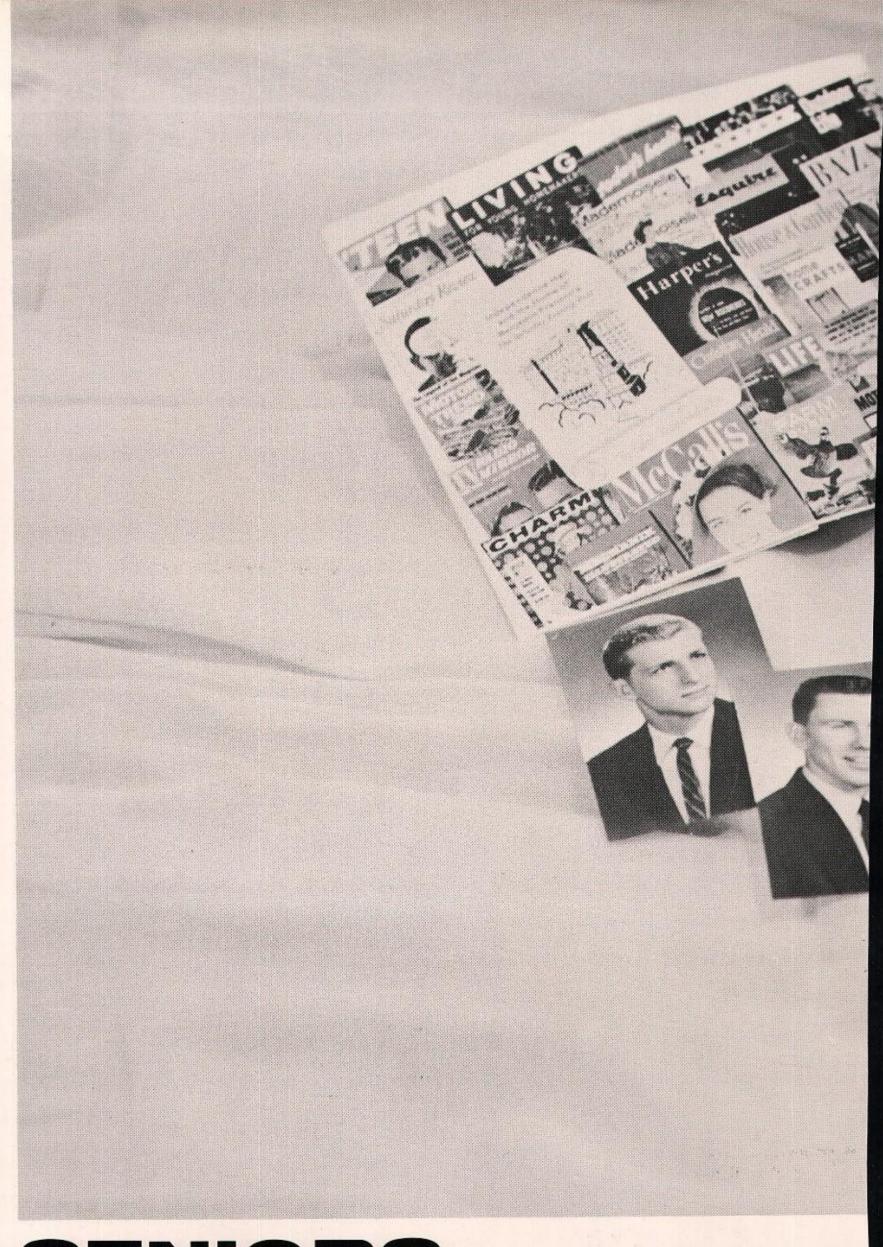

With unfailing patience the librarians teach their lessons too.

"In the highest civilization, the book is still the highest delight. He who has once known its satisfactions is provided with a resource against calamity."

Emerson

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The senior class officers have the responsibility of presiding over class functions and keeping the twelfth grade a smooth running organization. The president of the senior class joins the president of the Student Association in making a final speech on graduation night.

CLASS ADVISORS

Our class advisors, Miss Mans and Mr. Macafee, have guided us through the social events of our years at West with skill and wisdom.

Dana Macafee, Mary Mans.

Nooooooooooo!!!!

This year our A. F. S. exchange student was Cathelyn Oudemans of the Netherlands. Cathy, who spent her first ten years in Indonesia, is adding Spanish and Russian to her already broad linguistic background which includes English, German, French and Indonesian in addition to her native Dutch. While living in Rochester this year, Cathy has found many friends and participated in a wide range of extracurricular activities at West High School.

ACTIVITIES

Prissy pretends.

Seminar of 121.

Life goes on while it blows outside.

The executive suite.

"You've got too much blue in this."

Camaraderie.

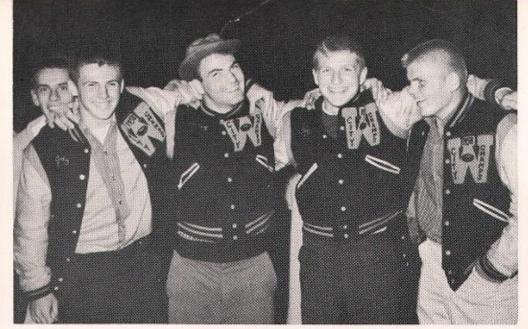

Oh, I like yours.

"There're only 19 required theorems."

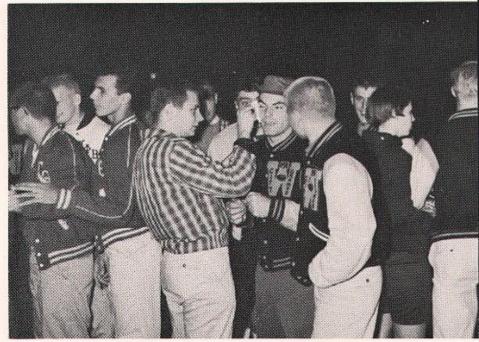

"Watch closely, girls."

We've got the T-E-A-M.

"And there was this big guy . . ."

Whataya got! Lipstick on ya face?

"For unto us a child is born."

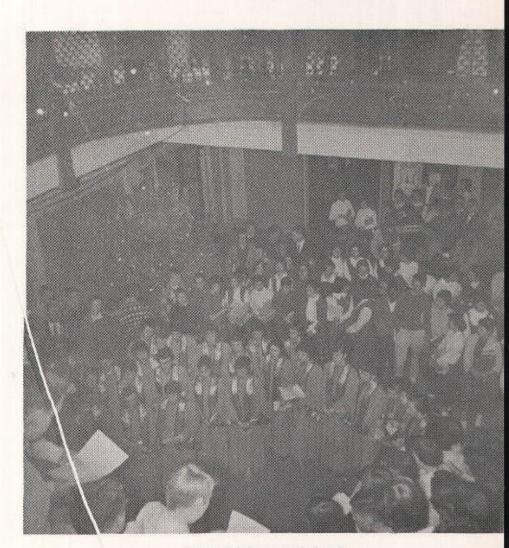

All dressed up in our holiday best.

"Troll the ancient yule tide carol."

"Good tidings we bring."

Sleeping on the set, eh?

"Let us walk in the white snow, In a soundless space."

Cheerio and all that rot!

A once in a lifetime cleaning.

The Hi-Y invades the physics room.

"Does it hurt?"

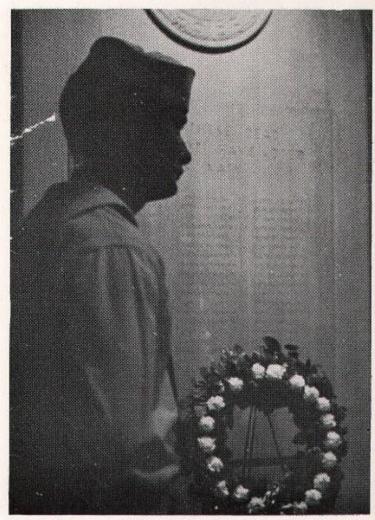

"Did you get THOSE last measurements?"

"Anything you can do, I can do better!"

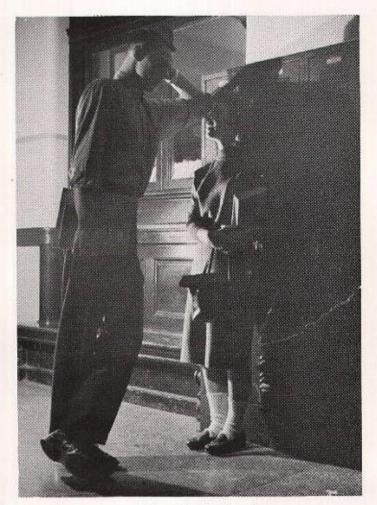

This was the winter of the biggest snow.

"That these dead shall not have died in vain."

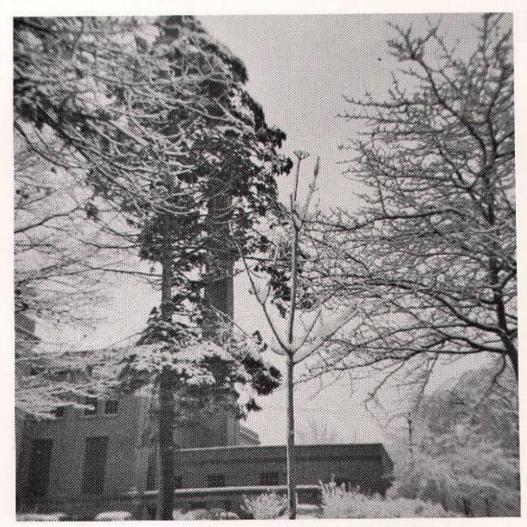

That's right-ham it up!

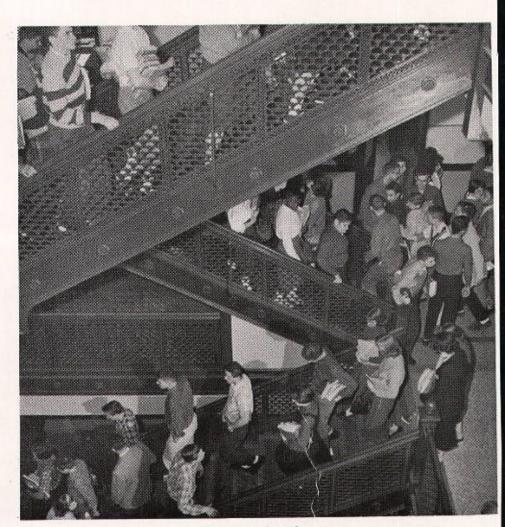

Okay, break it up!

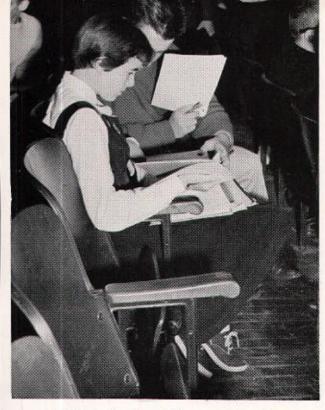

That's our class tree-the stick in the middle.

The usual mob.

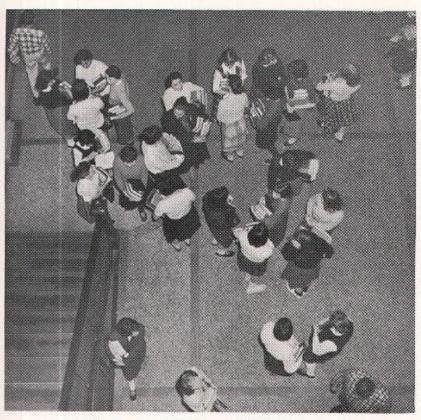

Winter memories, or miseries!

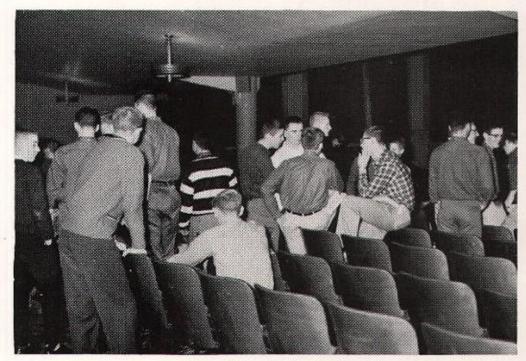

"Now, for the third question . . ."

In from the country-for the last year,

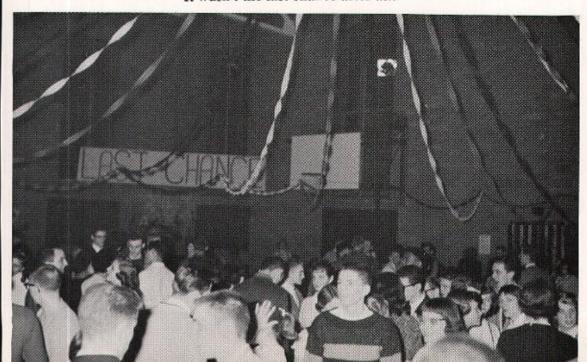

Did she . . . ? Did he . . . ? Did they . . . ?

Hey, did you hear about . . . ?

It wasn't the last chance after all!

"Play for amusement only."

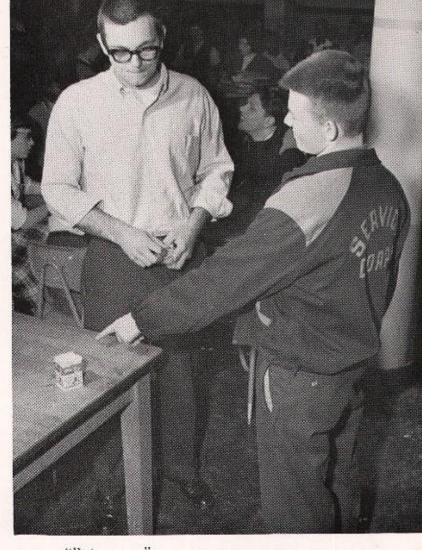

"Plate, please."

"But, I wasn't doing anything!"

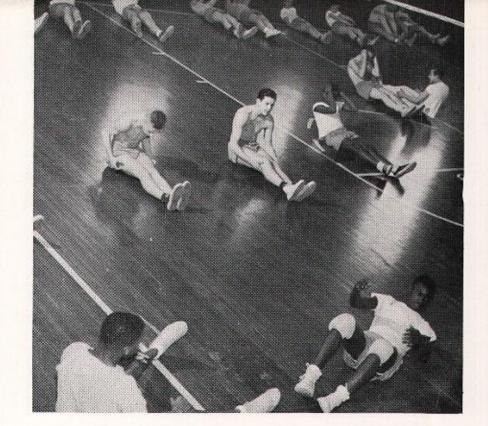

"But"
"Take it anyway!"

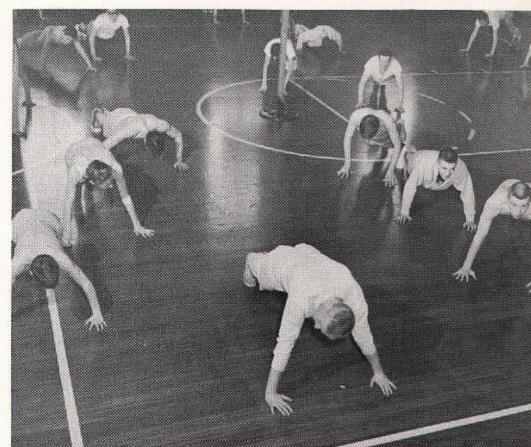

Two bowls of what, Mr. Miller?

On the home stretch.

One! Two! Three!

Now, twenty-five, Marine style.

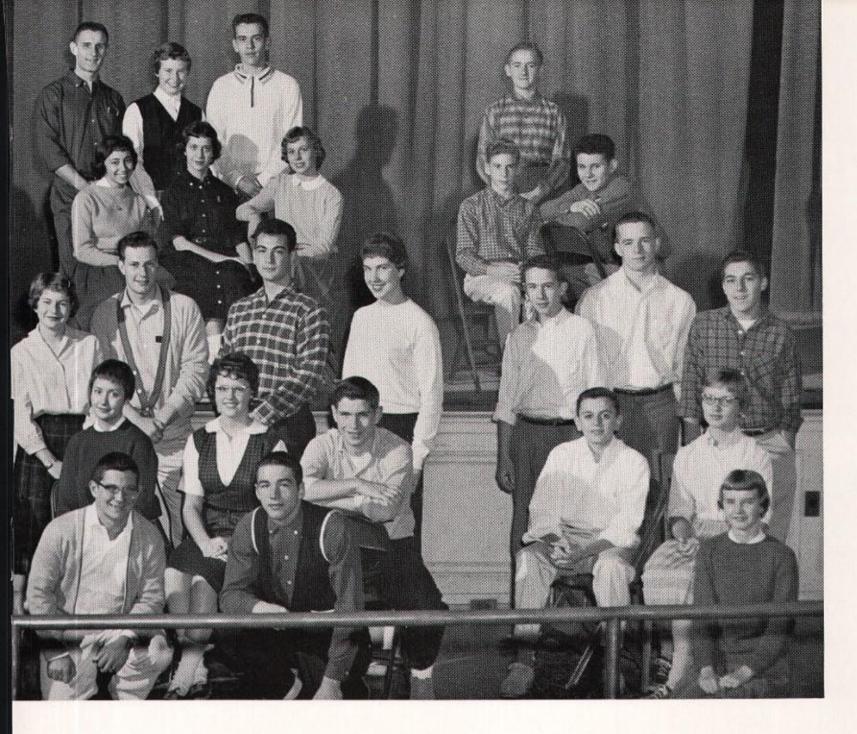

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This representative body is a vital organ in the functioning of the school. It approves the budgets and dates of school activities and suggests improvements in the student government.

Each member is chosen to represent his homeroom in the deciding of school policies. The S.A. Vice President presides over the meetings and Mr. Lockwood acts as advisor.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

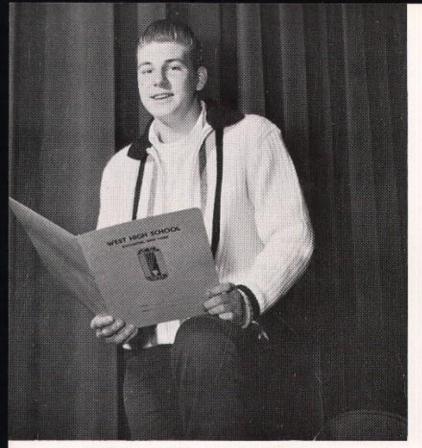

Composed of the class presidents, various commissioners, and Student Association officers, the Executive Council had a special task this year. These students enforce the rules passed by the House of Representatives, and a special committee has been hard at work revising the constitution of the Student Association.

Meeting of the "Big Wheels."

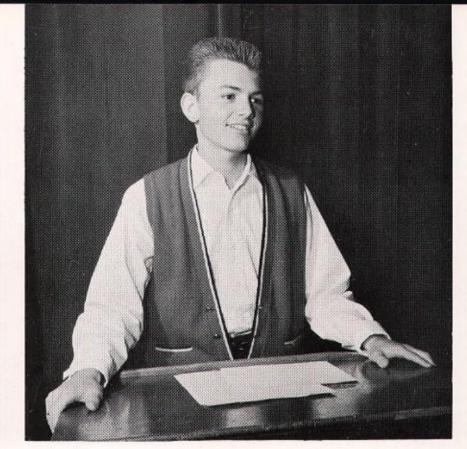

PRESIDENT: DONALD KINGSTON

SECRETARY: PAMELA HARMON

VICE PRESIDENT: THOMAS BRONSON

STUDENT ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

"And I promise to serve not a faction within the school but the whole school."

This is a portion of the oath taken annually by the newly elected Student Association Officers, who this year are Don Kingston, Tom Bronson, Pam Harmon, and Carol White. The officers are elected by the members of the Student Association after two weeks of rigorous campaigning and three days of bright banners, skits, speeches and noisy parades.

HEAD CHEER LEADER: CAROL WHITE

Front: D. Preckett, J. Stoll. Back: L. Fisher, F. Moore, R. Mac Donald.

CLASS OFFICERS

Elected early in the fall of each year, the five officers of each class organize various projects to raise funds for class parties and activities.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The emblem of this Society is the keystone and the flaming torch. The keystone bears in its corners the letters C.S.L.S. which stand for the four principles of the organization: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service, and symbolize the high ideals of our Society. The flaming torch is the emblem of our purpose: to bear forward the searching light of truth.

GUARDIANS OF THE FLAG

This year fifty stars make a flag. Mary Ludlow, Edward Mosher.

Advisor: G. Lombart. Chairmen: B. Taff, Grade 11, P. Chapin, Grade 10, M. Ludlow, Grade 12, S. Davis, Grade 7, J. Kiehle, Grade 9, J. O'Neill, Grade 8 (abs.).

SCHOLASTIC RATING COMMITTEE

"Are you sure that's only worth .2 credits?" . . . "Oh no! Do I have to do all this over?" and "Where are the yellow cards anyway?" are familiar compaints as grade level chairmen try to make order out of chaos.

The first Monday in each marking period finds these students in the lunchroom checking the ratings of their classmates and preparing the honor lists for the hall bulletin board and points toward scholastic letters.

SERVICE CORPS

"I don't care if that isn't your lunch tray, pick it up anyway!" West High's Service Corps has the not always pleasant job of maintaining order in the lunchroom in spite of straws in the ceiling, unused waste paper baskets, and six hundred pent up voices all making up for lost time.

Darvoe, W. Blackstock, R. Meisner, T. Young, R. Ulp, R. Pelton, J. Thompson, K. Frank, D. Campbell, W. Tarbell, J. Schreiber, M. Brown.

AUDIO-VISUAL CORPS

It is the purpose of the Audio-Visual Corps, led by Mrs. Jackson, to co-ordinate the use of such educational materials as movies, filmstrips, slides, tape recorders, and records with the usual classroom work. In addition, the Corps trains operators for the various types of projectors and other machines. A reserve of projectionists is available at all times so that teachers may schedule audio-visual aids at their convenience. Through these services, the Audio-Visual Corps plays a large part in making classroom work more interesting.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

In rain, in hail, in sleet, in slush and mud, the members of West High's Traffic Squad faithfully take their posts on busy corners to aid students in safely crossing streets. This little-recognized organization also serves at various functions during the year and runs a booth on the West High Day Midway.

LUNCHROOM STAFF

These girls act as cashiers for the hungry hordes of students in the cafeteria lines.

BOOKSTORE STAFF

"Three-ring, wide-line, for a quarter." From this sort of gibberish the members of the bookstore staff determine the students' wants and do a thriving business before and after school. Somehow they manage to survive the onslaught, particularly hectic in the spring, when hundreds of review books are in demand.

FUTURE NURSES

In their candy-striped pinafores, the Future Nurses of America see films, listen to speakers, and take an annual field trip. Individually they put in many hours of volunteer work in the various hospitals of the city in order to earn their pins and learn more about the nursing profession; together they pack Christmas baskets for needy families and find out about the different sorts of nursing schools.

FUTURE LIBRARIANS

The library aides have the arduous task of pasting together our wellworn text-books each year and tracking down students who have overdue books. Capably assisting Mrs. Hinchey and Mrs. Brown, these girls take their places at the check-out desk. They also shelve books before and after school when the library hums with activity.

Macbeth, the Christmas pageant, and R. U. R. gave the stage crew plenty of chances to use their skills and ingenuity in producing sound, lighting, and scenery. West High has a long tradition of fine assembly programs which these boys have diligently tried to uphold.

For two hours each Saturday morning, the members of Mr. Bohrer's "Honours Russian Class" struggle with the formidable Russian grammar and briskly move from English into Latin, French, and Spanish in an attempt to learn tricky constructions and word derivations. Sometimes the class spends more time on philology than Russian, but its members are proud to be pioneering the study of this interesting language at West High.

OCCIDENT NEWS

"The Occident News comes out today!"
Before this can be said, Jo Chandler, her editors, and their busy staffs put in long hours of sleuthing, writing, and preparing layouts. Right after school the kids troop into room 101 to work on surveys, write copy, and proof read. The first issue of the Occident News came out in 1905. This year as before, the editors are determined to make each issue the best one yet.

OCCIDENT ANNUAL

"All right now, let's brainstorm this!" At eight-fifteen on a Monday morning the editors all wax eloquent over their particular problems while Sue Davis harangues the mob.

Jim and Rick found that the yearbook required not only the sweat of their brows but the shirts off their backs while taking a uniform Junior Choir picture. Long-suffering mothers provided nourishment when we worked straight through lunch to make a deadline.

One day turned out to be a comedy of errors that left all of us stranded in a broken-down car far out Chili Avenue, while Barb Taff hunted for a tow truck. Obstacles like these are hard to foresee.

INTER-HIGH BAND AND ORCHESTRA

The members of the Inter-High Choir and Orchestra give concerts at various times during the year. Among other things, the choir sings at the annual Thanksgiving Day Services at the Eastman Theater. The Orchestra gives an annual spring concert. These performances are a point of attraction for many West High students.

What kind of instrument is that?

"Welcome Home!"

MUSIC COUNCIL

The West High Music Council is unique in both its organization and its functions. Its role is of vital importance to the members of the various music organizations at West since it acts to represent the Senior Choir, the Senior Orchestra, and the Band in planning a lavish dance for all the members of the student body and in raising money for such worthwhile projects as choir robes and band uniforms. The advisor for the Music Council is Mr. Ernest Ahern, Vocal Director.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

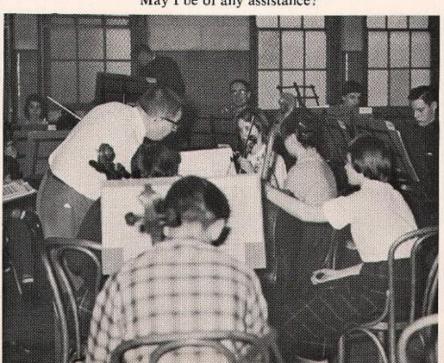

"Take it from the top."

ORCHESTRA

The students who play in the West High orchestra learn to express themselves through music. In Rochester, the students of the Eastman School make it possible for many young people to learn to play an instrument and participate in an orchestra such as ours. For many years Mr. Osborne and his orchestra have produced fine music for assemblies and the spring concert.

The Junior Orchestra members later enter the Senior Orchestra as accomplished musicians.

SENIOR CHOIR

Directed by Mr. Ahern, our Senior Choir presents its annual spring concert, a concert for an assembly, and its traditional Christmas service in the halls. As an added experience, the choir sang with Tommy Sands at the Eastman Theater this year.

The Music Council dance, a variety of parties, and the job of arranging this picture are all highlights of the year.

JUNIOR CHOIR

Junior Choir acts as a training school for Senior Choir. It helps its members to train their voices from September scratches to May melodies, which are exhibited in the annual Junior Choir concert.

The concert is over, now for a celebration!

PEP CLUB

Under the leadership of Joanne Zoberbier and guidance of Mr. Hicks, this year's Pep Club has become a real and active organism of the school body. Banners and posters have been announcing the time and place of each game, while orange and black pom poms have also made their way into the "rooting" section. The hardworking efforts of the Pep Club members (consisting of the cheerleaders and a representative from each homeroom) have been seen throughout the year, but few can ever realize the time and care put into the making of a simple "GO WEST GO" banner or a "FIGHT TEAM" poster to adorn the halls.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The members of the Junior Red Cross Council attend monthly supper meetings at the Red Cross Head-quarters. During the year, they sponsor cookie sales, a fund raising drive, and a booth on the West High Day Midway. Last summer Alex Bloss, a member of the West High Council, had the honor of being chosen to attend the National Convention in Atlantic City.

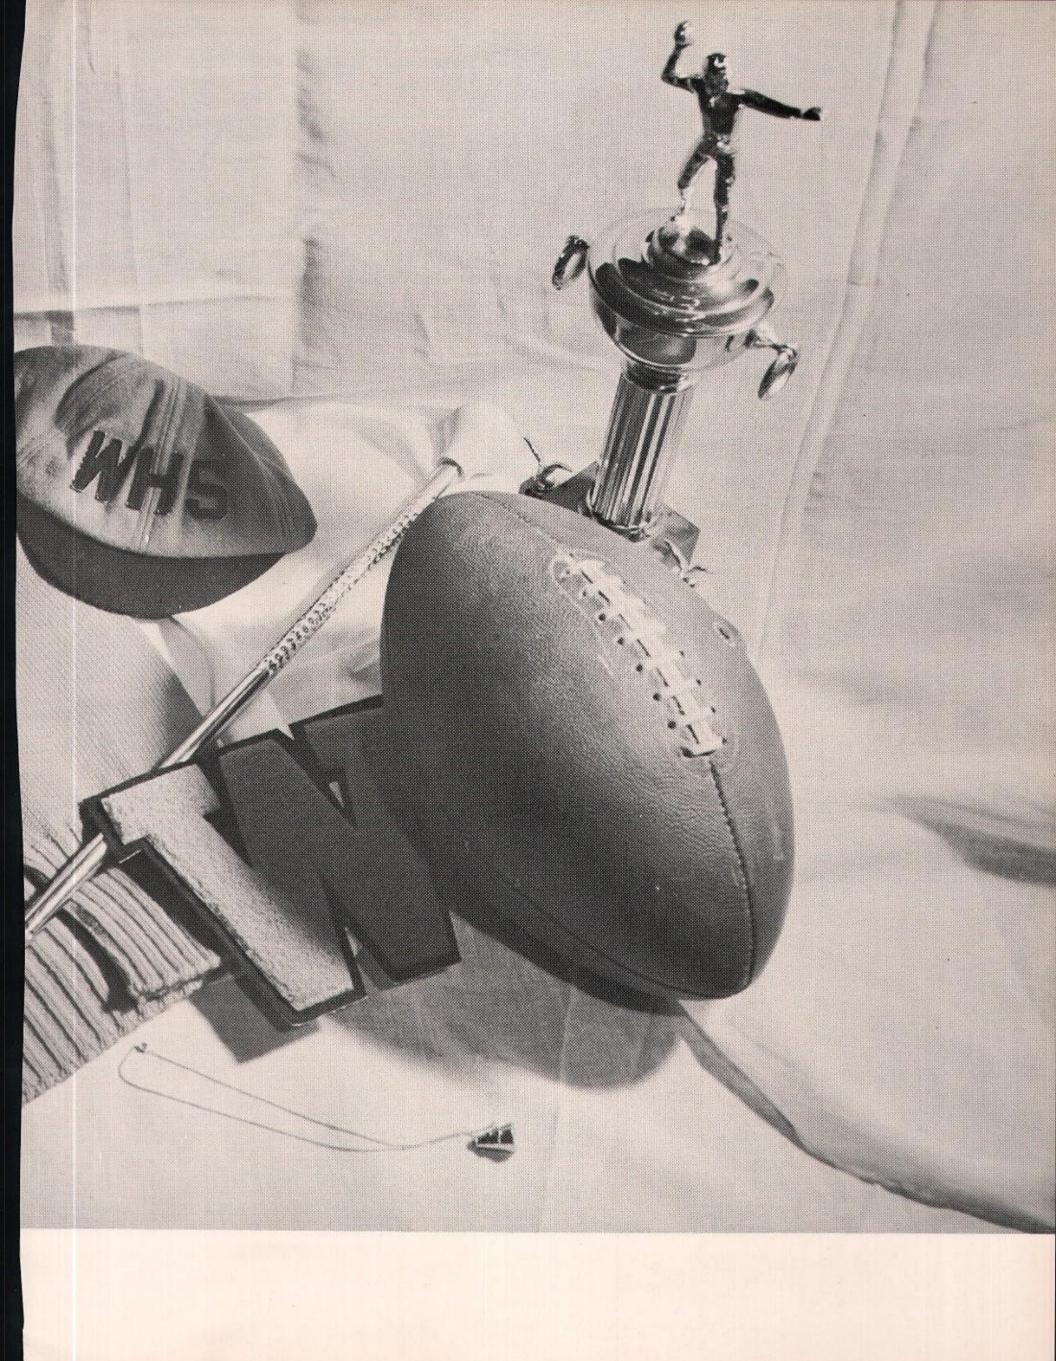

CANTEEN COMMITTEE

"Canteen on Saturday," and these students work hard to sell tickets in advance and promote a large attendance of West High Schoolers. VARSITY CLUB

Another "first" for the class of '60 was their part in establishing a Varsity Club at West. A boy had to meet certain requirements to be eligible for the club. He had to be a Junior or Senior, the holder of two varsity letters and had to meet the same scholastic requirements as the members of the teams. The members of the club serve as ushers for the various sporting events and, eventually, will be working with the intramural program. The boys worked under the direction of Mr. Barney Smith.

G. A. A. COUNCIL

The G.A.A. Council meets on Monday afternoons to plan schedules for playdays in the various sports and to prepare the attractive exhibits which appear regularly on the bulletin boards in the girls' gymnasium. The Council also has some type of activity each spring when the girls' sports awards are presented.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

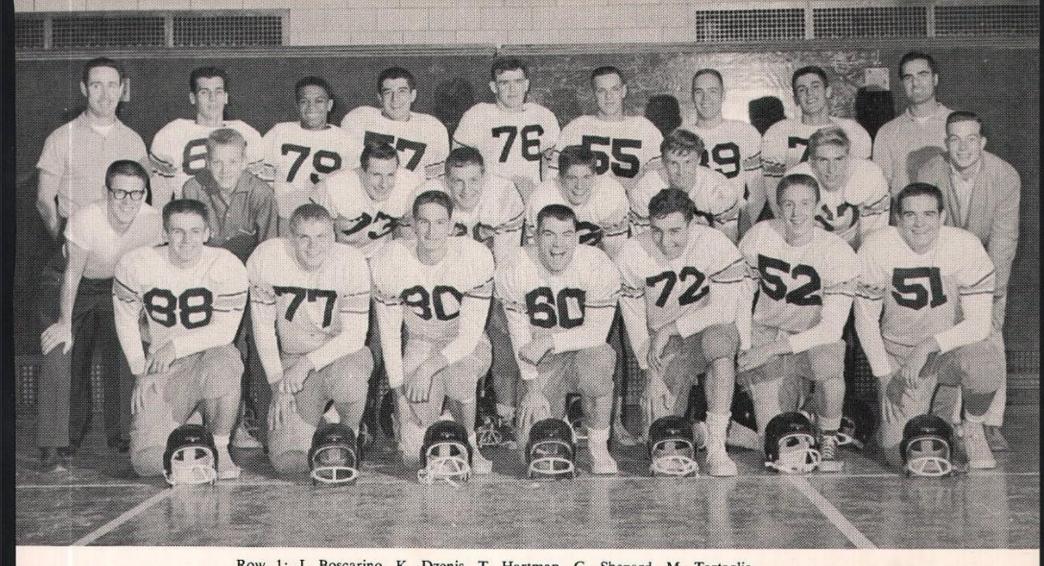

Through the fine work of Coaches Roger Bunce and Joseph D'Ambrosia, the '59 football squad completed their season with a 7-1 record. They finished second, losing only to Jefferson in the final game. The Occidentals dominated the All-Scholastic roster by placing veterans Gary Shepherd and John Walrath on the first team. Newcomers to the list were linemen Mike Tartaglia and Karlis Dzenis, and quarterback Jim Harris.

VARSITY SOCCER

The pitchmen booted their way to one of their best seasons at West. The nearly all-senior team counted on experience, determination, "hustle," and the coaching of Bob Lays to take up slack which appeared with the loss of many graduates. By compiling a 6-1-1 recoru, the Occidentals tied for the championship for the second straight year. Having been given first place from the city in sectional play, the booters soared over Brockport, only to lose to Edison in the semi-finals. "Scotty" Martin received first team honors on the All-Scholastic squad for the second straight year. Tom Bronson placed on the second team. Other seniors whose fine play contributed to the successful season were Bill Buckingham, Terry Giles, Jim Kiehle, Bob Maier, Ron Rice and Bob Warren.

They dropped a close decision to the School for the Deaf in the city championship game. This is the squad that will be taking over the varsity duties next year, filling the gaps left by graduation

CROSS COUNTRY

The West High Harriers finished the '59 cross-country season in fourth place in the Interscholastic League standings. The Harriers were a young and a small team that showed much determination and hard work. Outstanding for the Occidentals were Bob Seyba and Gary Trezise. Mr. Donald Cummings, finishing his second season as Occidental coach, stated that he was happy with the team's effort.

VARSITY SWIMMING

Under the direction of Coach "Lefty" James, the Occidental swimmers registered a 6-2-1 record for a third place in the interscholastic league. The team was much more balanced and experienced than in the previous two years. Out of the eight veterans on the team, six were seniors. Outstanding finmen in their respective events were Ron Rice, Don Galloway, Jim Thompson, and Warren Brandow. Thompson, only a sophomore, was undefeated in league competition in the 200 yard freestyle event, and was named on the All-Scholastic squad. The relay team of Rice, Brandow, Galloway, and McNeice was also named in the All-Scholastic.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Under the direction of Coach Sam Hessney, the basketball team racked up a record 12 wins and 4 losses in league play, ending the season in third place. The hoopsters defeated Edison in the first sectional game, only to lose to Franklin in the semi-final round. One of the highlights of the season was breaking Franklin's 22 game winning streak. Mike DePrez placed on the All-Scholastic first squad, and Jim Harris and Bob Grims placed on the second team. Danny Walrath, particularly outstanding on defense, was named most valuable player.

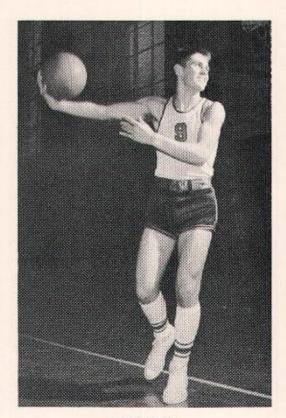

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

The West High volleyball team captured the city championship for the second consecutive year. The spikers defeated Charlotte, Jefferson, and Marshall to come out on "the top rung of the ladder" in the elimination tournament. The all-senior team, led by co-captains Bob Maier, and Jack Piechota, topped their opponents in six out of seven matches. Other members of the team were Tom Bronson, Terry Giles, Don Haggstrom, Bob Moore, Ed Mosher, Mark Sillay, Jim Titus, and Bob Warren.

WRESTLING

Stability and balance were the key words for this year's wrestling team, for their success depended upon the efforts of all. The grapplers sweated their way to the co-city championship with a record of seven victories with one defeat. Unbeaten in their respective classes were Willie Weaver and Karlis Dzenis. Jack Pfaudler had only one defeat in league matches. Weaver and Mike Tartaglia were sectional champs in the 175 and 165 pound weight classes.

BASEBALL

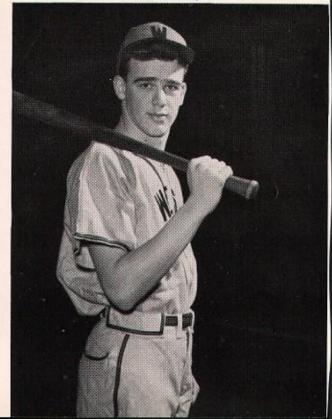

When the last echo of "play ball" resounds no more in the air, the '59 baseball season draws to a close. The team had a better year than the record indicates, since they dropped some close decisions. Especially close was the 1-0 loss to Batavia. The moundsmen finished with a 3-5 record in league play and broke even in non-league competition with 3-3. Two well-earned victories were over non-league rival Aquinas by scores of 10-0 and 1-1.

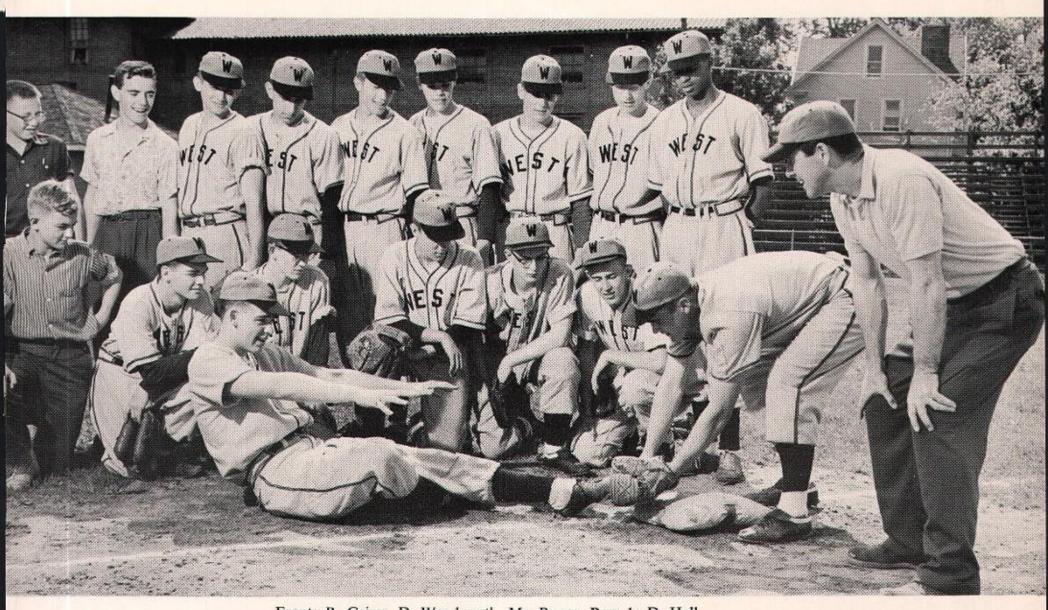

Next year the team will return to West High Field and find a new diamond facing them. Gone will be the short right and left field lines; thus the field will become a pitcher's dream instead of a batter's heaven.

VARSITY TRACK

Slowed by lack of experience, the '59 cindermen coached by Mr. Joseph D'Ambrosia finished the season with a 3-5 record in sixth place. Jack Harris, Jack Pfaudler, Fred Burke, and Dick Noack were outstanding performers in their respective events.

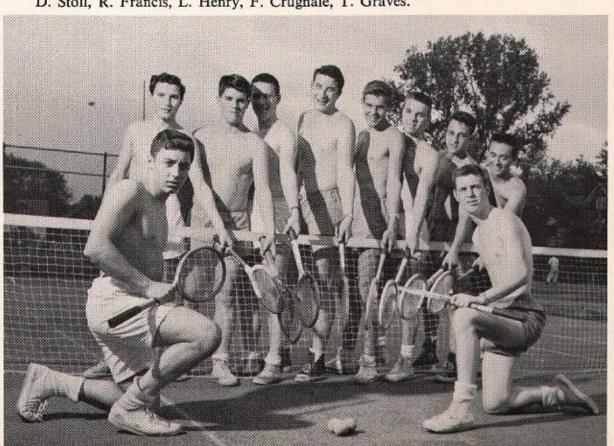

A classic pose with modern props.

TENNIS

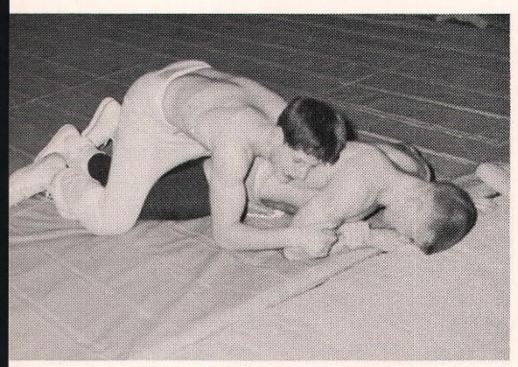

Tennis is a relatively new sport on the West High scene. These boys work out on their own, and have to fight their way through trackmen and dodge baseballs to get to practice. The '59 team had a 3-win, 5-loss, 2-tie record.

COLD weather, pouring rain, and mud-plenty of mud!! This year's varsity cheering squad has become quite familiar with these as a result of our near-victorious football season. Such conditions prevailed at practically all the games and have made mittens, rubber bands, ear warmers, and rain coats almost standard equipment. Many times these girls have started a cheer with water dripping off the tips of their noses only to climax a jump by landing in one of the innumerable puddles, too well scattered to dodge.

Just as our boys must work hard and practice regularly to attain victory and know the joy of winning, so must the cheerleaders practice and work to achieve the goals they have set before them.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS

Adding pep and vigor to soccer and J.V. basketball games, the Junior Varsity cheerleaders have done much to foster school spirit. They have been hard at work on Monday practice sessions trying to quench the competitive varsity yells and marching music of the majorettes, while their practice efforts have resulted in precision and skill in their many cheers.

MAJORETTES

This year the Majorettes have donned their new white and orange beanies and have worked extra hard to become a welcome and colorful addition to school events. These girls bring credit to West High through their inspiration and presentations of twirling skill.

SOCCER

On any Wednesday afternoon amid the rust colored autumn leaves, the Girl's Soccer Team can be seen playing on the lawn of West High. Although soccer is one of the rougher, more active sports, it has been gaining support every year among the girls. It has always been an intramural sport, but the girls would like an opportunity to show their skill against other schools.

BASEBALL

Baseball is always a favorite sport among the girls at West High. One of the nicest attractions of baseball is that it offers an opportunity to get out and enjoy the fresh spring air after spending the day inside. Here we see the girls participating in a game on the lawn.

BASKETBALL

Basketball is a sport enjoyed by many girls at West High. As you see by their smiles, they always enjoy a brisk game after school. The Basketball Club was well supported this year with a surprisingly large number of girls from the younger grades, which indicates as good a Basketball Club in the future as in the last few years. VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball Club had very good support this year. The club attended two Playdays. Eight members and a student referee were chosen to participate in playoff games against other schools. At the first Playday, held at Madison High School, the team lost all of its three games. At the second Playday, held at Charlotte High School, the girls did much better, winning two of their three games.

BOWLING

The Bowling Club, consisting of ten teams, bowls every Wednesday after school at a nearby bowling hall. This sport was especially popular this year because it provided the opportunity for friendly competition for the girls. One of the top teams for the year was the "Star Bowlers."

ADVANCED APPARATUS

The Advanced Apparatus Club was a new club this year. It grew out of a demand for more advanced work on the side horse and parallel bars. Because of the lack of time available in the physical education classes, Mr. Lombart consented to lead the club during seventh period on Mondays. The club is predicted to be active in future years because of its popularity.

TUMBLING CLUB

The Tumbling Club is a relatively new club in the history of after school sports for girls here at West High. The Tumbling Club was originated to help girls acquire the skill needed to perform the many different gymnastic feats.

The beginners in gymnastics look forward to the time they will become "pros," while the girls who are more advanced, strive to perfect their present skills and learn more difficult feats.

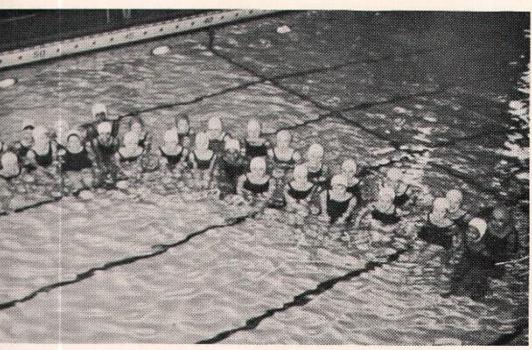

BADMINTON

The Badminton Club held what is known as a "ladder tournament" this year. In this type of tournament a player challenges another player above her on the board. If the challenger wins the game, the two players change positions on the board. The top three players on the ladder at the end of the tournament were Carol Stone, Linda Detweiler, and Barbara Moore.

WATER BALLET

The Water Ballet Club gave a show called "Far Away Places" in May. The girls practiced very hard all year long in order to put on a show in the spring for the school. They not only practiced swimming, but they had to do exercises before each session to limber up and keep in shape.

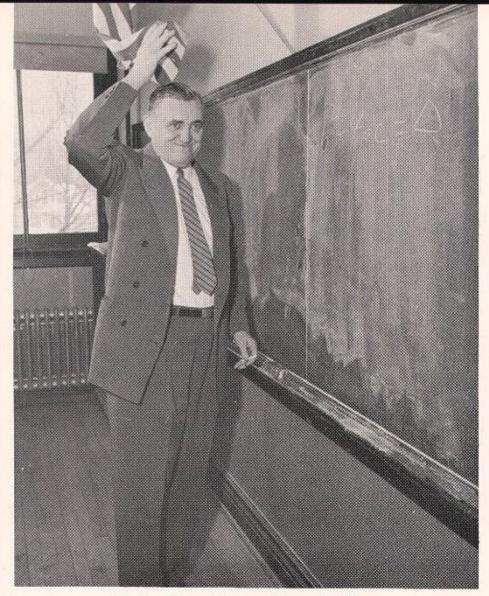

For the show, they had flags from different countries all around the pool. One of the numbers which they did was called "Wunderbar." Some of the girls were dressed up as boys with heavy red suspenders over their blue bathing suits. They held beer mugs for effect. The girls in the number wore yellow bathing caps with yellow braids and bangs, and had flowers and bows adorning the rest of their costumes.

RECREATIONAL SWIMMING

The spacious West High swimming pool has provided after school enjoyment and recreation for many years. Here we see the large number of girls, from every grade, who take advantage of this privilege.

"Either I'm too high, or it's too low!"

"Ooops, box is below the name!"

"Yup."
